TO BE GREATEST GATHERING OF VETERANS EVER HELD

Richmond Will Have "Crowd of Old Boys Such as Was Never Got Together in the Post,' General Mickle Writes.

Colonel John W. Gordon, general chair: man of the Confederate Reunion committees, has every reason to believe that a vast crowd will come to Richmond on the occasion of the soventeenth annual session of the Grand Camp, U. V. C. Each mail brings him letters of inquiry and promisses of additional forces to join the graycoated liost. From present indications it would seem that the city will be taxed to its uttermost to entertain all of the old soldlers if not more than $45,000 is raised soldiers if not more than $45,000 is raised for the entertainment of the veterans. Witness the following extract from a Witness the following extract from a letter written from New Orleans January 29th by General William E. Mickle, adjutant-general and chief of staff of the United Veterans, to Colonel Gordon:

"You are going to have a crowd of old boys to attend the reunion, such as was never got together in the past, nor ever again will be brought to meet in one spot on earth. What more suitable place is there in this wide world than the sacred soil of Virgnia?

"I feel sure your committee and your

The confusion incident to the superfusion incident, the underly has just been committed to that institution, through the efforts of Muyor Mearthy. The woman was tearing her clothing to pleecs in her cell and was exhibiting other symptoms of violent and dangerous insanity, and realizing the urgency of the case, the Mayor took the matter up. He addressed a message to the superintendent of the hospital, impressing the necessity of action, and received a telegram in replyfrom Dr. J. M. Henderson, acting superintendent, stating that he would send an agent for the insane person. The agent camo yesterday and the case was thus disposed of.

came yesterday and the case was thus disnosed of.

The case in question is a very sad one. The insane, woman is a widow and has five children, the eldest of whom is a youth of twenty. She developed insanity ten days or mere ago, and had to be taken into custody. The inevitable result is that a home is broken up and the children left to care for themselves as best they may.

best they may.

But for the Mayor's action the unfortunate woman would still be confined in the jail, which is utterly unfit for the care of insane persons.

Duttes for Several Days Yet.

Sheriff John E. Epps, of this city, has been detained at his home by reason of severe illness for a week, and will be unable to resume his duties for several days yet. This popular official has been threatened with pneumonia, but is now believed to be on the way to recovery.

During his illness his deputies, Mestra, S. C. Sheild and Herhert Mercer, have been kept busy by the work of the various courts.

Writ of Error Awarded.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEXINGTON, KY., February 5.—In a wreck of freight trains on the Chesspeake and Ohjo Railway near Cohy Station, ten miles from here, this afternoon, Engineer Edward Harp, C. K. Marchall and R. B. Wilson, trainmen, were instantly killed. Several other trainmen, whose names have not been tearned, were injured. One of the engines exploded, killing the men instantly. The trains met in a head-on collision. The dead men all lived here. Writ of Error Awarded.

In the Supreme Court of Appeals a writ of error was awarded in the case of Hanger vs. the Commonwealth from the Corporation Court of Portsmouth. Hanger was charged and convicted of violating the Sunday laws. He ran a soda water fountain and was heavily fined in the Police Court. He appealed to the Corporation Court and that tribunal sustained the lower court. Hence the appeal to the highest court in the State.

The hunting season being now over, any game, dead or alive, found in the possession of merchants and dealers, will be confiscated by the game wardens, and the holders of such goods may be made to pay a heavy fine. Game Warden W. J. Lynham yesterday found in the possession of merchants something like a hundred plump birds, ready for the cook. The same were promptly confiscated and turned over to the hospitals, the Retreat for the 'Sick and the Sheltering Arms Hospital becoming the beneficiaries.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Fobruary 5.—
The lower branch of the General Assembly to-day passed the anti-race-trackgambling bill. The measure has already passed the Senate. The Governor will sign the bill, which takes immediate effect and deals a deathblow to horso-arcing in Tennessee. The Memphis and Nashville Racing Associations had already prepared to hold spring meetings.
